OUR SUMMIT

AALA offers a different type of power and place for people of color than what is offered by the traditional leadership sector. The theme of our 7th Annual Summit, Beyond Leveling Up Next Level...Next Strategy...Next Action, highlights ways in which we can continue to leverage the collective strength of our resources in ways which can positively impact communities of color. Taking place in Pittsburgh, PA at the Wyndham Grand Pittsburgh, Thursday, April 6, 2023, this conference provides platform for key issues within the community to be explored, discussed, and disseminated. It allows space for dialogue to confine, building the knowledge base and capacity of people of color to inform and strengthen inclusive workplaces.

Due to a diverse and interesting program, the summit continues to build its summit attendance, with prominent organizations, foundations, corporations, and community leaders. Supporters of AALA encompass a variety of sectors, from community organizations, foundations, government, banking, the law, private industry, public policy, and education. Annually attended by up to 200 individuals, this event is one of the leading summits of leadership development amongst communities of color.
